I shall be obliged if the Financial Secretary will favour me with a calendar for passing the State Budget through the various stages till it receives His Highness's final sanction. The calendar may show -

(1) the date for a discussion of the final Budget. A brief explanatory statement may kindly be furnished to me beforehand.

(2) the date for discussing the Budget in the Executive Council; and

(3) the date for discussing the same in the Legislative Council. (The procedure to be adopted in the Legislative Council may be indicated).

4 A calender and draft rules of procedure are put up for approval. The latter supplement the rules of 12.2.1914. It would perhaps not be convenient to crowd in the Economic Conference & Budget work both into the Birthday week — besides that date is too early for budget discussion. 8/4

Draft Rules

The following procedure will be observed in regard to the discussion of the State Budget in the Legislative Council:-

1. As soon as possible after the 20th June a meeting of the Legislative Council will be held at which, with the President's permission, the Financial Secretary will present the draft budget with a brief statement explaining its salient features. Printed copies of the draft budget and of the explanatory memorandum will be furnished to the Members. There will be no discussion on the budget that day.

2. At the next meeting of the Council, each Member will offer any observations he may wish to make on the budget, provided

(a) that a Member shall speak only once,

(b) that he shall not without the special permission of the President take up more than 15 minutes,

(c) that the observations shall be confined (only) to the subject matter of the budget.

3. The Financial Secretary will then reply, to such points as may not have been completely dealt with by official Members preceding him and the discussion will be closed by the President with such observations, if any, as he may consider necessary.

4. The budget as finally passed by His Highness the Maharaja with the explanatory statement and a supplementary memorandum shall be published in an extraordinary issue of the Mysore Gazette.
